Invitation to the Fourth Biennial
ALLA Conference

The Australian Labour Law Association (ALLA) is pleased to announce its Fourth Biennial Conference, to be held at the Rydges Hotel, Melbourne on Friday 14 and Saturday 15 November 2008.

The Conference themes include:

- The Coalition’s reforms to workplace relations legislation: what will be the longstanding impact on the workplace?
- Forward with Fairness: new powers, new standards, new rights and obligations and a new institution (Fair Work Australia).
- A national scheme under Labor: the Federal-State dimension.
- The future of registered organisations in the workplace relations system.
- A new balance between work and life: equality and flexibility for employees under Labor.
- Contracting after WorkChoices: implications for independent contractors and the common law of employment.
- Corporate governance, corporate social responsibility and employees' interests under a Labor Government: more or less self-regulation?

Call for Papers Abstract Deadline 20 June 2008

Abstracts should be forwarded to Professor Richard Mitchell by email: Richard.Mitchell@buseco.monash.edu.au
