Melismata Terms of Publication

1. Introduction

This document sets out the terms of your agreement with the MLMSA with regard to publication in the MLMSA Student Review, Melismata. The MLMSA reviews these terms on a continuing basis and the terms herein are subject to change without prior notice. The most recent version of the terms in force are intended to have retroactive effect and will be published on the MLMSA website: http://www.law.unimelb.edu.au/mlmsa/ shortly after ratification by the MLMSA Executive.

2. Author Warranties and Indemnities

You agree to allow the MLMSA to reproduce the paper submitted by you in Melismata. In doing so, the MLMSA relies on the representations and warranties that you have made in your application for publication in Melismata. You agree to indemnify the MLMSA and its Editors for any loss, damage, or liability that may occur as a result of a breach of the following warranties:

2.1 You warrant that you are the sole author of your submission and that is an original work that you wholly own;
2.2 Your submission does not infringe copyright in any way and that you have properly acknowledged the appropriate authors where you have referenced their work;
2.3 Your submission has not already been published;
2.4 Your submission is not being considered for publication elsewhere;
2.5 Your submission is not defamatory; and
2.6 Your submission does not infringe the rights of any third party.

3. Copyright

The MLMSA and its Editors do not require you to assign copyright of your paper. The following terms of copyright apply:

3.1 In submitting your paper for publication in Melismata, you grant the MLMSA, its Editors, and any third parties authorised by the MLMSA or its Editors, an irrevocable, royalty-free licence to publish your paper in Melismata.
3.2 The MLMSA does not charge or pay you a fee for publication.
3.3 You agree not to publish your paper without prior notice to the MLMSA and its Editors once it has been published in Melismata (‘subsequent publication’).
3.4 Subsequent publication must acknowledge that the paper was first published in Melismata.

4. Editing and Review

You authorise the MLMSA and its Editors to edit your submission to, without first seeking your approval or giving prior notice to you:

4.1 Correct any spelling or syntax errors;
4.2 Format the submission and references to house style;
MELISMATA TERMS OF PUBLICATION

4.3 Adjust the font, layout, presentation and design of the paper to conform with the Melismata Visual Style Guide;
4.4 Acknowledge the contribution of the Editors; and
4.5 Enhance expressions and clarify meaning.

In accordance with best practices the MLMSA and its Editors will endeavour, but does not undertake, to consult you prior to making any major changes.
