

ALLA NATIONAL WEBINAR

The Changing Landscape on Sexual Harassment: The New FWA Provisions

Implementing recommendations of the AHRC Respect@Work report, successive amendments to the Fair Work Act have prohibited workplace sexual harassment and empowered the FWC to deal with disputes about sexual harassment by issuing 'stop orders', conciliation, mediation, making recommendations and expressing opinions, and where agreed, by arbitration. The Sex Discrimination Act has also been amended to expand the prohibitions on sexual harassment and impose a positive prevention duty.

Chaired by Professor Beth Gaze, our panel of expert speakers will reflect on the new Fair Work Act provisions and their implications for complainants when deciding under which jurisdiction to bring a claim.

DATE Wednesday, 7 June 2023

TIME 5:30pm – 6:30pm AEST

Online via Zoom webinar

REGISTER HERE

This event is free of charge, but places are limited.

CPD/CLE points may be claimed for this event in all State and Territories except WA

Gabrielle Marchetti is Principal Lawyer at JobWatch, representing clients in contentious employment law matters. She has a particular interest in the intersection of family violence and employment law, and other employment law issues affecting vulnerable women.

Kamal Farouque is Principal Lawyer at Maurice Blackburn Lawyers in its industrial and employment law section. He has practised in the field of workplace law for over 20 years. Kamal has extensive experience advising and representing employees and unions in discrimination and sexual harassment claims.

Belinda Smith is an Associate Professor at the University of Sydney Law School. Her main fields of research are anti-discrimination and labour law, with a focus on gender equality, work and care. In articles and chapters published in Australia, the United States and Japan she has explored alternative regulatory tools and frameworks for promoting equality.

Beth Gaze is a Professor at the University of Melbourne Law School. Her main research interests are in anti-discrimination and equality law, including empirical research. Beth has been a member of several state and federal tribunals and participated has participated in law reform processes and committees at state and federal levels.

<https://law.unimelb.edu.au/alla>