

ASIAN COMPETITION FORUM

STUDENT ESSAY COMPETITION 2017

$500 Prize

Due 01/11/17

As part of the annual Asian Competition Forum (ACF) conference events, we are holding, for the first time, a student essay competition.

Eligibility

All students currently enrolled at a University institution are invited to produce a written submission of 2500 words maximum (excluding footnotes) on the following topic that echoes the theme of the 2017 ACF conference to be held in Hong Kong later this year:

Essay Topic

The enforcement and implementation of competition law and policy in Asia is in reverse because of protectionist and nationalist pressures. Do you agree?

Prize

The most creative, original and insightful essay, as judged by a panel of Competition Law academics, will be announced on the 30th November 2017 and the author will receive a prize of US$500, a certificate acknowledging their achievement and the winning essay will be posted on the ACF website.

Submission of entries

All essay submission must be submitted by the 1st November 2017 in accordance with the terms and conditions below.

Good Luck and we look forward to reading your submission.
