This major conference brings together academics, policy makers and advisers to reflect on the theme of defining, taxing and regulating the not-for-profit sector from comparative, theoretical and practical perspectives. The conference will provide insight into the Australian Government’s ambitious agenda for not-for-profit reform.

Keynote speakers:
- Professor Evelyn Brody (Chicago-Kent Illinois University, US)
- Professor Gino Dal Pont (University of Tasmania)
- Professor Myles McGregor-Lowndes OAM (Queensland University of Technology)
- Hubert Picarda QC (UK)

• On regulation: The Commissioner, Australian Charities and Not-for-Profit Commission; Trevor Garrett, New Zealand Charities Commission; Robert Fitzgerald AM; David Locke, Assistant Commissioner, Australian Charities and Not-for-Profits Commission; Judge Alison McKenna, First-Tier Tribunal (Charity)
• On taxation: John Emerson AM, Professor David Duff, Debra Morris, Fiona Martin
• On definition: Dr Jonathon Garton
• On the role of charity: Professor Nina Crimm and Professor Laurence Winer; Professor Rob Atkinson; Associate Professor Adam Parachin; Dr Matthew Turnour and Elizabeth Turnour