

Sanjayan Rajasingham is a J.S.D candidate at Yale Law School. He is from Colombo, Sri Lanka, and his interests include the impact of Buddhism on constitutional order, constitutionalism in the global South, and legal pedagogy in deeply divided societies. Sanjayan has published on constitutional law, law and religion, and human rights. He has also consulted for the Constitutional Assembly Secretariat of the Sri Lankan Parliament and taught constitutional law at the University of Jaffna.