CALL FOR PAPERS

International Association of Refugee and Migration Judges (IARMJ) Asia Pacific Conference

Conference organisers are seeking expressions of interest in presenting papers at the conference.

The Asia Pacific Chapter of the IARMJ conference
27 – 29 November 2024

Peter McMullin Centre on Statelessness, University of Melbourne

The IARMJ seeks to foster an understanding of the rule of law in refugee and migration decisions and to provide practical assistance to judges and appeal level decision makers in these decisions through the sharing of knowledge and best practice.

The aim of the conference is to provide an opportunity to consider and reflect on aspects of our work under the conference theme and sub-themes:

“Vulnerabilities in Refugee and Migration law: People, processes, and systems”

The conference organisers have proposed the following, non-exhaustive, sub-themes:

- Mental Health
- Artificial Intelligence
- Expedited processes or shortcuts?
- LGBTIQ+ claims
- Judicial resilience
- Statelessness
- Credibility
- Gender
- Deportations and removals
- Trauma informed practice

There may be other sub-themes which interest you and we welcome your thoughts and contributions.

If you wish to present a paper at the conference, please provide the details of all presenters, your affiliations, and a 250 word summary of your proposed presentation to sean.baker@aat.gov.au.

Deadline for expressions of interest: Wednesday 1 May 2024
